Hi Michelle,

Thank you for your email.

I can confirm that Cory has an active claim. As previously advised, we temporarily paused Cory's benefits from 31 May 2026 after becoming aware that he had returned to work.

We have since reviewed Cory's payslips covering the period from 17 March 2025 to 24 May 2026 and identified a substantial overpayment. I have recently requested additional payslips for the period from 25 May 2026 to his most recent pay period to ensure we accurately capture all employment income.

Once we receive the outstanding payslips, we will complete our review of the claim and determine the appropriate next steps.

At present, Cory's benefit end date is 24 September 2026. As this review process is taking some time, Cory may wish to access any available paid leave to ensure he continues to receive an income during this period.

Additionally, if a graduated return to work (GRTW) arrangement can be accommodated for Cory, please let us know and provide a copy of the approved GRTW plan.

Should you have any questions then please do not hesitate to contact me.

Kind Regards

Good afternoon James,

Just touching base regarding Cory's QSuper Claim, just confirming he does still have an active claim with QSuper and can you confirm when the 2 year benefit period for this claim is due to expire.

Kindest Regards
