Date / time	Event	Source · significance
(the disagreement)	■ HIS CONTEST, itemised — draft reply to LBH_HR: (1) the dates in the letter are wrong — “the false dates of contact included in this letter”; (2) he is a protected employee who had provided a work capacity certificate and was under medical treatment with a psychiatric appointment upcoming; (3) the letter was issued “without proper diligence and due process, aiming to avoid overturning liability”; (4) HR “purposely delayed and coerced the outcome of the WorkCover claim, with correspondence twice exceeding a month over the 5 days allowed”; (5) the directive breaches the Fair Work Act, Industrial Relations Act, Human Rights and the EB11 HHS agreement; (6) WorkCover had given Queensland Health an outcome letter acknowledging a personal injury “while making no accommodations for me and disregarding any injury or work capacity certificates supplied”; (7) ■ the letter referred to leave he took when his grandfather died — “extremely offensive and inappropriate”; (8) the fatigue pay request renewed — 7 hours, not including travel time; (9) he had already lodged a crime and corruption complaint	■ STATUS: a DRAFT, saved 28 Jul 2026 19:45 — i.e. revisited during the current dispute. ■ TO SUPPLY	An additional full-time employee engaged in Switchboard, and subsequently removed	Raised by Cory 5 Aug 2026. Not documented in the repo. Needs dates, the position, and the source. Goes to whether the service could accommodate hours — and to the “unable to accommodate” statement

■ 28 Mar 2025	■ RESTRICTED. Management responds that the leave may not be available, on the basis of how he is characterised in a court matter	4 Oct 2025 complaint (Attachment C): described as “factually incorrect”, contravening the Directive, and contrary to advice he had received. ■ The characterisation itself is NEVER to be voiced forward — discipline rule 10

PHASE 7 — ■ THE LOCKOUT AND WHAT FOLLOWED (26 Jun – 31 Jul 2026)

Date / time	Event	Source · significance
26 Jun 2026 10:42	■■ THE ORIGIN DOCUMENT. C Taylor, “Cory Shepherd — ECC”: opens with a welfare check and the EAP brochure; notes the 5 May request outstanding; then — “Until we receive appropriate medical clearance, including a completed Employee Capacity Certificate (ECC), we are unable to facilitate your return to work.... As your employer, we have a legal obligation under section 19 of the Queensland Work Health and Safety Act 2011”	■ s 19 is a duty owed TO the worker, operating “while the workers are at work”. Cited before anything was challenged — MSH's own first, unpressured characterisation of its authority. One day after service on Ruttan — recorded, never asserted as a cause
