Dear Ms Matheson,

I refer to this appeal.

I have withdrawn my Form 29 application. Consistent with what was discussed at the mention on 7 August 2026, I have reviewed the disclosure the Regulator has already provided. Rather than seek further documents, I am asking the Regulator to admit what that material already shows.

I serve the following:

1. Form 24 – Notice to admit facts
2. Form 25 – Notice to admit documents
3. Annexure A – the 39 documents referred to in both notices (133 pages)
4. Part B – a plain summary of the notice, grouped by stressor

Part B is the quickest way into the material. It is not itself a notice; the operative documents are the Form 24 and the Form 25. Each fact, and each document, can be admitted or disputed separately.

Under each notice, if you do not serve a notice disputing the facts, or the authenticity of the documents, within 14 days, they are taken to be admitted for this proceeding only.

Annexure A is a large attachment. If it does not reach you, please let me know and I will send a download link.

Yours sincerely,

Cory Lea Shepherd

Appellant (self-represented)
