Employee:

☑ I agree to the above changes to my employment hours/position. I hereby claim for the extra remuneration for hours worked in a higher duties capacity (where applicable). I also certify that I have been informed by my line manager/supervisor of the consequences of this change to my:
* FBT Concession Eligibility status that may result from this variation to my employment contract and
* Position, employment status, terms of employment and/or roster. I also acknowledge that as this appointment is of a temporary nature, the contract may be ended by my line manager with the appropriate notice in accordance with award provisions.

I understand that my current existing superannuation scheme and/or contribution arrangements will continue to apply to my new health employer within Queensland Health (where applicable), with any future changes to superannuation arrangements to be applicable to current and past employer entities within Queensland Health, unless otherwise specifically advised.

Temporary employees only:
Your appointment is for a temporary period. Continuation or extension of employment in this position cannot be guaranteed beyond the end date stated above. Please note that your employment may be terminated prior to the end date of your fixed term appointment, by either party, in accordance with the termination clause in the above mentioned Award or other industrial instruments relevant to your employment.

Disclosure of personal information:
I understand that personal information in relation to my employment may be disclosed by my current health employer to another health or government agency, subject to applicable law, in connection with my movement/change to a role or employment with (or any application for or assessment of me having a role or employment with) that other health or government agency.
