

QUEENSLAND INDUSTRIAL RELATIONS COMMISSION

Matter No. WC/2024/227 | Cory Lea Shepherd (Appellant) v Workers' Compensation Regulator (Respondent)

OUTLINE OF EVIDENCE – MR CORY HARRISON-JONES

Served pursuant to direction 2 of the Further Directions Order (3) dated 19 August 2026. Not filed in the Industrial Registry.

Mr Harrison-Jones was employed at Logan Hospital Switchboard from [month/year] to [month/year] as [position]. He is no longer employed by Metro South Hospital and Health Service. He worked alongside the Appellant during that period.

1. A function of the Switchboard was to hold and maintain accurate contact and paging numbers for medical staff, including on-call doctors, so that calls and emergency notifications could be directed to the correct person.
2. Over a period of approximately three months Mr Harrison-Jones observed the Appellant working to obtain and record updates to medical doctor contact numbers. The updates for [ward/unit] were consistently missed on [day of the week]. The Appellant raised this and continued to seek the updates over that period.
3. Mr Harrison-Jones was a recipient of the email sent by Ms Stibbard to the Switchboard team on 18 July 2023 stating that she would be removing everyone's access to the database and that changes were to be sent to her directly.
4. After access was restricted, operators could not correct an entry themselves and had to wait for Ms Stibbard or Ms Taylor to make the change.
5. On or about [date] Mr Harrison-Jones was present in the Switchboard room at the commencement of a shift. The Appellant had arrived and was reading the handover. He had not yet signed on.
6. Ms Taylor came into the room and asked the Appellant whether he had taken the reminder out. [Mr Harrison-Jones to describe the sequence — who spoke first, whether Ms Taylor spoke while the Appellant was speaking, and what each of them said.]
7. Mr Harrison-Jones heard Ms Taylor raise her voice. [He is to describe the manner and volume, and the Appellant's response, from his own observation.]
8. In the period in which Mr Harrison-Jones worked alongside the Appellant he did not at any time hear him say anything hostile about Ms Taylor or about any other member of staff.

This outline is a summary of the evidence the witness is expected to give. It is not a statement of the witness and is not signed by the witness.