Subject: WorkCover Medical Certificate

Good morning Cory

Following my email from last week I am emailing again to remind you to please submit an updated medical certificate in support of your claim S23LW142013. It is critically important to continue to provide consistent certification to both your employer and to WorkCover QLD.

We are keen to support you during your claim application process - please be sure to call or email should you need any further information regarding this correspondence.

Best regards

Alison
