Subject: Re: Cory Shepherd - 11-Jan-1991 (MSH-INJ-5795)

Thanks Michelle,

I spoke to Cory about this and wanted to clarify below issues.

I was informed by Cory that

- The reductions in hours happened three times and all such reduction in hours of work were agreed by management without a medical certificate or any medical grounds being required at the time.

- According to Cory, nothing has materially changed that would indicate the need for medical certification.

Questions from my end.

1. What is the basis of which his reduction in hours were accepted in the first instance and subsequent instances?
2. What has changed is QH's administrative position that warrants in-depth psychiatric assessment (personal sensitive mental health information)?
3. What is the QH policy on disclosure of such a sensitive mental health information and grounds for such disclosure?
4. What are the concerns or risks either observed or reported at workplace that warrants disclosure?

This will help before I undertake detailed assessment to provide my professional opinion.

Kind regards

Ravi

Subject: RE: Cory Shepherd - 11-Jan-1991 (MSH-INJ-5795)

Good afternoon Ravi,

Thank you for reaching out to get clarification from us regarding the information requested in relation to Cory.

I acknowledge that Cory has provided permission for us to speak in an email he sent to us dated Wednesday 12/08/2026.

Happy to provide you with this information and to assist you with this, would it be possible for you to share what information Cory has provided to you?

Cory has been provided with all the information and background to provide to the appropriate medical practitioner and want to ensure you have this too.

I am mindful of sending this to you without first seeking Cory's authority as it does contain information from another medical practitioner and does not form part of the points he has approved for which we can liaise directly with you about. As you can appreciate, we do have to be so very careful with what we share and that we also have the appropriate authorisation.

The reason for the request was Cory had requested a reduction in hours and advised this request was due to medical reasons. We obtained further information from his GP Dr Ma and we are seeking further clarification based on that information provided by Dr Ma.

Thank you!

Kindest Regards

Michelle Harrison

Hi Michelle,

I am Cory's treating psychiatrist. I saw Cory yesterday in my clinic.

I was given a Employee capability checklist to complete by Cory.

I wanted to understand the reasoning for this information sought in the first instance...any performance issues or concerns observed or reported that triggered this process.

Please provide context and procedures that being followed for this process.

This really helps me to understand the full extent of issues and how I can support him to maintain his employment.

Kind regards

Ravi
