Subject: FW: Without Prejudice - RE: TD/2024/110 Cory
Lea Shepherd & State of Queensland (QLD Health)

Dear Mr Shepherd

We refer to the above matter.

Please find attached an amended deed from Ms Griffin.
There were only minor changes, such as inserting your return-to-work date and the amount of leave loading.

If you are content with these minor changes, we believe there is now an in-principle agreement between the parties.
We propose to write to the Commission seeking for the conference to be vacated.

When you are able, we ask that you sign and return the PDF version of the Deed of Settlement to our office.

Moving Forward

If you wish to discuss this matter, please do not hesitate to contact our office.

Hi Paul

As discussed, please see attached our proposed (minor) amendments tracked in over the top of your track changes. Payroll are ok to process what we have agreed on with the wording you have drafted- We will just need to make sure on our end we have the appropriate payroll officer action the deed.

I am going into a meeting until 1.30 but available after that.

Thank you for your email.

Conference Listing

While we would like to notify the Commission as soon as possible if the conference is not required, we will not be in a position to do so until the parties have reached an in-principle agreement.

Would you be able to advise of the scope of the further amendments the Respondent proposes to make before 1:00pm today?

Our office would be happy to pre-emptively draft correspondence to the Commission requesting the hearing be vacated, which can be sent as soon as an in-principle agreement is reached.

I will come back to you today with some minor amendments to the changes you have made, but in general terms it looks like we are fairly close to one another. With that, and the listing for Monday morning in mind, are you minded to the Commission please and notifying them that we are likely to reach resolution without their assistance?

Dear Ms Griffin

We refer to the above matter.

On a without prejudice basis, please find attached an amended draft of the deed of settlement. The changes proposed by our office have been tracked for your reference.

We are instructed that Mr Shepherd would prefer to be reinstated the day of his dismissal and so the deed provides for the paid out annual leave to be deducted from the settlement sum.

If you wish to discuss this proposed deed of settlement by phone, please do not hesitate to contact our office.

Hi Paul

As discussed yesterday afternoon, I have attached here Mr Shepherd's final payslip which shows the amount of leave that was paid to him on separation – 54.16 hours/$2337.93 and leave loading of 54.16 hours/$642.93. I have also obtained some advice from HR which indicates that if Mr Shepherd is appointed the day after the dismissal (rather than the day of), then the leave would not be required to be repaid, but he would start at a leave balance of zero. Both are options we can discuss. I have an 8.30-9am meeting this morning, then 12.30-2.30 but otherwise at my desk today.
