Hi Chloe,

Thanks for following up.

1. ECC progress — I have an appointment booked for 5 June to get the ECC completed. Screenshot of the booking confirmation attached.

2. Tomorrow's roster — I also have a court mention in Brisbane tomorrow at 10am and I'm currently rostered on the morning shift. In order of preference, I'd like to:

- Swap my morning for someone's afternoon shift, or
- Come in around 1pm if anyone on the midday shift would like to swap.

If neither swap is possible, I'll need to take tomorrow off as a last resort.

Appointment confirmation and court mention both attached. Let me know if a swap is workable.

Thanks,
Cory

Good afternoon Cory,

I'm sorry to hear that you've been having a difficult time recently and are feeling distressed. Thank you for letting me know.

To ensure we have a clear understanding of your current capacity and can provide the most appropriate support in the workplace, could you please arrange for the attached Employee Capabilities Checklist (ECC) to be completed by your GP?

Once the ECC has been returned together with a supporting Medical Certificate, I will review the information provided and we can then discuss the next steps to ensure you are supported and working safely.

If you would like to talk through things in the meantime, please feel free to give me a call or alternatively reach out to our Employee Assistance Program (EAP) (brochure attached) for some additional support during this difficult time.

Kind regards,

Chloe

Hi Chloe,

Sorry for the late upload — I've been struggling each day one thing at a time feels difficult and have been quite distressed lately. I've attached my medical certificate to this email.

If you would like to talk through where things are at. Happy to give you a call, or feel free to call me once you've had a chance to read this.

What I wanted to ask is whether I can drop to 5 shifts for the next month while I work on getting myself well. The plan would be to build my shifts back up once I'm doing better.

I am struggling today so request it off.

Thanks for your understanding.

Regards,
Cory
